Rick Riordan is the best-selling author of Percy Jackson's New York Times and the Olympians, Kane Chronicles and Olympian Heroes series. He is also the author of the award-winning mystery series Tres Navarra for adults. For fifteen years, Rick taught English and history in public and private high schools in the San Francisco Bay Area and Texas. In 2002, Saint Mary's Hall honored him with the school's first Master Teacher Award. While teaching full-time, Riordan began writing mystery novels for adults. His series Tres Navarra won the first three national awards of the mysterious genre: the Edgar, the Anthony and the Shamus. Riordan turned to children's fiction when he started The Lightning Thief as a bedtime story for his eldest son. Today, more than 35 million copies of his books Percy Jackson, Kane Chronicles and Heroes of Olympus are printed in the United States, and the rights have been sold in more than 35 countries. Rick is also the author of The 39 Pistas: The Maze of Bones, another New York Times bestseller #1. Rick Riordan now writes full-time. He lives in Boston with his wife and two children. Enhanced NOOK Books >Buy Now In this adventure, Annabeth encounters more oddities on the subway than usual, including a two-headed monster and a young blonde who reminds her a little bit of herself. This is the story that fans have asked for, where Annabeth Chase teamed up with Sadie Kane. The demigod daughter of Athena and the young wizard of Brooklyn House face an enemy of the ancient world. Perhaps even more disturbing than the power-hungry god they find is the revelation that he is being controlled by someone very familiar to Sadie. The audio narrative was recorded by Rick Riordan himself. As a special bonus, it includes the first chapter of THE BLOOD OF OLYMPUS, the last book in the series Heroes of Olympus.
